PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS.

Lawyer T. C. Rye of Paris was in the city Wednesday.

E. L. Hudson and family have been visiting at Coxburg.

Hon. John T. Peeler of Huntingdon was here Wednesday.

John W. Bateman of McKenzie was here on business Monday.

Lon Cowell of Paducah visited his father, E. G. Cowell, this week.

Dr. O. Holland Williams left Saturday for Lexington and other points.

Owing to an unavoidable accident we are delayed in going to press this week.

Wesley Woodson of Hutchinson, Kan., was the guest of the family of Joe J. Weatherly last week.

Ad Tippet and Miss Elva, his sister, of Coxburg are here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Joe and Dick Odle and sisters, Misses Nell and Nannie, of Coxburg visited relatives and friends here this week.

Plans are maturing to build a parsonage for the M. E. Church, South, and subscriptions are being solicited for that purpose.

Walter S. Ayres arrived from Iowa a short time before his mother's death Tuesday afternoon. He left yesterday for Oklahoma.

Miss Bonnie Howard, who has been teaching at Benton Seminary a few weeks for her sister, Mrs. M.
E. Woodbridge, has returned to her home at Nashville.

M. A. Hatley of Holladay and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Holland of Chalk Level returned yesterday tor of the M. E. Church, South, arrived here the latter part of last week. He preached his first sermon Sunday forenoon and again in the evening.

Down they go! We are talking to you about the sensational slash of prices made by Bowles & Redick in their clothing department this week. Their display advertisement in THE CHRONICLE will tell you all about it.

The M. E. Church, South, Sunday School last Sunday decided to have a Christmas entertainment for the children, and A. V. Bowles, U. A. Potts, W. D. Cooper, Mrs. A.
S. Justice and Misses Cora Maiden and Bessie Hudson were appointed committee on arrangements. The committee will be prepared to report their plans for the entertainment next Sunday.

The city council held an important meeting Wednesday evening.
What is known as the Stigall Road bill was reconsidered and passed second reading. Alderman A. V.
Bowles' bill to establish a curfew law passed second reading. The council refused to suspend, during the holidays, the ordinance which prohibits the shooting of fireworks within the city limits.

invites you to call and see his magnificent display of holiday goods and novelties, consisting of plush goods, albums, mirrors, toilet articles, fancy cut glass ware, choice stationery, dolls and novelties for the little folks, and a large stock of choice Christmas goods from which to select a present for your wife, mother, sister, sweetheart, father, brother or the children.
Call early and thus avoid the usual holiday rush.

Lost—Between home and Camden (via Leonard Cooley's) November 19, a black overcoat. Will pay a reasonable reward.

LEM THOMPSON.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society, organized at the Baptist Church as the meeting closed, will meet through the winter, at least, at the homes of the members. The society is composed not only of Baptist ladies, but of all the ladies in town—whether church members or not—who desire to join in the charity and missionary work by the members. The society meets this week in the home of Mrs. O.
H. Williams, to which place all those interested are invited at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

After a short illness Mrs. Martha A. Ayres died at her home 4 miles north of Camden Tuesday, of pneumonia. The funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, South, Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. B. Graham, and the interment was at Camden Cemetery.
Mrs. Ayres was the widow of Capt.
R. W. Ayres, who died December 15, 1896. She was born January 1, 1840, and was a native of North Carolina. In 1846, when only a child, she came with her parents to Tennessee, and she joined the M. E. Church, South, about 1857.
She was married to Capt. R. W.
Ayres, who served in the Confederate army, was an able minister, an honored Mason and a prominent citizen of our county. She is survived by four children, Walter S.
Ayres, Robert W. Ayres, Mrs. T.
D. Clement and Mrs. C. O. Habbs.
Mrs. Ayres was loved and highly esteemed by all who knew her, and she wielded a strong christian influence among her associates and friends. Her death is greatly deplored, and much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.
